STORY TIME!

Note for mum / teacher:

Read the story for the learner. Please read it twice. Ask him / her to tell you what has happened in the story to determine if he / she has an understanding of what has happened in the story.

After the story follows the pictures of the story. Let him / her look at the pictures and let him/her explain what happens in the pictures.

Cut out the pictures (It works very well if you also laminate the pictures). Start by giving only 3 pictures and tell the learner he / she should place it for you in the correct order. For example, give him / her the following 3 pictures:

1. Where lion catches a mouse.
2. Where lion is caught in the net.
3. Where mouse and lion are buddies and put a mouse on the lion's back.

You have to give the pictures scrambled.

The lion and mouse

A Lion lay asleep in the forest, his great head resting on his paws. A timid little Mouse came upon him unexpectedly, and in her fright and haste to get away, ran across the Lion's nose. Roused from his nap, the Lion laid his huge paw angrily on the tiny creature to kill her.

"Spare me!" begged the poor Mouse. "Please let me go and someday I will surely repay you."

The Lion was much amused to think that a Mouse could ever help him. But he was generous and finally let the Mouse go.

Some days later, while stalking his prey in the forest, the Lion was caught in the toils of a hunter's net. Unable to free himself, he filled the forest with his angry roaring. The Mouse knew the voice and quickly found the Lion struggling in the net. Running to one of the great ropes that bound him, she gnawed it until it parted, and soon the Lion was free.

"You laughed when I said I would repay you," said the Mouse. "Now you see that even a Mouse can help a Lion. Lion and mouse were friends for the rest of their lives."
