

A colorful illustration of a nativity scene. In the center, a baby Jesus lies in a wooden manger filled with yellow straw. A black and white cow stands behind the manger. To the left, Joseph, with a beard and brown robe, stands next to Mary, who wears a blue robe and a white head covering. To the right, three wise men in blue, purple, and grey robes with crowns stand in a line. The scene is set in a stable with a thatched roof and a hanging lantern. A large black oval with a dashed white border contains the title text. A yellow star is in the top right corner.
